Description:

With "Mister Stoneman" Roland Stauder. We start at „Sexten“ of Monte Elmo cable car. By cable car, we go up to Monte Elmo and take a nice path to Lodge „Hahnspüelhütte“ and then along a wide, easy cycle path to the „Sillianerhütte“ at 2.450 metres. We go on until Monte Arnese either cycle or walk around this to the left. From there, we can enjoy sweeping views on the Tre Cime di Lavaredo and the Sesto Dolomites and also towards the Großglockner to the north. The entire Demuth passage up to Passo Silvella is about 7 km long and technically very difficult with narrow S2/S3/S4 trails and several points, where it's necessary to carry or push the bicycle according to the different technical conditions. We go in direction "Kleinarl" for about 5km where the single trail "Vilpoan trail" starts until „Nemesalm“ There we visit Otti&Klara and of course, we will eat a typical South-Tyrolean dish. After our lunch, we continue to Passo Monte Croce, passing "Scharzsee" towards the campsite. The trail from there is again a cool, partially challenging trail, with lots of roots, passing the campsite to the valley station of the "Tre Cime di Lavaredo cable car". We return on the Sesto circular path back to „Sexten“.

» The Stoneman is a bike adventure that begins with a dream and ends in a lasting experience.
